This email I just got from Virgin Unite one of Richard Branson's organizations so eloquently stated that after being ask to support the relief effort of St. Maarten, they are too busy with BVI support that other affected islands are not to supported. This is shameful regard for other islands in need.

It seems like those that have the most.....do the least.

Hi Vic,

Thanks for your email about your support to the BVI's.

We are running our own fundraising programme for the BVI's , so we won't be able to get involved.

Kind regards,

Lucy
